DATA PRIVACY PROTECTION IS OUR RESPONSIBILITY. (BUBEZ PRODUCTIONS)

What is GDPR?

The General Data Protection regulation (GDPR) is a data protection and privacy regulation within the European Union and the European Economic Area (EEA)

The goal of GDPR is to give individuals in the European Union control over their personal data and to unify data privacy and protections laws within the European Countries.

What is Personal Data under GDPR?

In the context of GDPR, Personal Data refers to any information relating to an individual or identifiable natural person('data subject')

What Personal Data Do We Collect?

The personal data bubez productions collects can be divided into three categories

(1) Data you provide to us

- Contact information (such as full name and email address)
- Profile information (such as age, gender or photograph)
- Your messages to the service (such as chat logs)
- Other data you choose to give us

2. Data we collect automatically

- Data about your account
- Your IP address and mobile device identifiers (such as your device ID, advertising ID)
- Data about your device, such as device manufacturer, model, operating system and language

- General location data like country or city name
- Data about your use of the Service.

3. Data we receive from our partners

- Data we receive if you link your Facebook account with our page
- Data to fight fraud (such as refund abuse or click fraud in advertising)
- Data from platforms that stream our music.
- Data for advertising and analytics purposes, so we can provide you a better Service

Why do we collect this data?

This is probably the first question on your mind. First of all, we require this data to make our services better (from creating accounts to enabling you have access to our services, including verifying your payments).

Further, in an effort to continually make services better, we are also using your data to develop and improve customer experience, respond to your questions and provide support, manage our relationship with you, and enable you to communicate with us more effectively. We may also use personal data to show you personalised advertisements tailored to your preferences.

Last, but certainly not least, personal data is used to keep our services safe and fair by analysing and monitoring the use of our services and social features. It enables us to take action against specific customers involved in inappropriate behaviour such as fraud.

In all of the above cases we may analyse, profile and segment all collected data as needed.

What is Bubez Productions doing to protect your Personal Data?

- Using all appropriate technical, organisational and logistic measures to keep your data secure
- Notifying authorities of personal data breaches, if necessary
- Obtaining appropriate consent for data processing, if required
- Keeping records detailing data processing
- Providing privacy training for all our personnel
- Auditing and updating our data policies
- Employing a Data Protection Officer

What are your rights under GDPR?

Your rights as a data subject under GDPR include the following:

Reviewing your personal data

Upon your request, we will provide you with a copy of all your personal data stored in our systems in an easy-to access electronic format.

Erasing your personal data

You may request, under certain conditions, to have your personal data erased at any time. Please be advised that by erasing your personal data, all services in progress will also be deleted. This process cannot be undone, deleted accounts cannot be recovered.

Opting-in or opting-out of email communication
